From the hand of Fr. Ferris ....

As I am sure you well know, this weekend is Memorial Day Weekend, the semi-official beginning of summer. You know many people who are away this weekend opening up their cottages, going camping, and beginning the summer routines.

More important than the beginning of summer is the honor we are called to pay to the men and women who have died in service of this country. We would not be here, and we would not enjoy the great blessings of this nation, without their sacrifice. As wonderful as summer in Michigan can be, good things, truly good things, come through sacrifice. Your very life and wellbeing came from your parents' sacrifice. Your education and success at work required years of sacrifice. There is a cost to us for what truly matters.

The same is true for this nation. We enjoy great blessings of liberty; we enjoy great material wealth and prosperity; we live in a (relatively) stable environment, secure from many threats foreign and domestic. These are truly great things that most people for most of history have never enjoyed. We have them, in large part, because of the sacrifice of countless people for generations.

Jesus tells us in the Gospel of John: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." (John 15:13) Jesus shows us the truth of this by laying down His life for His friends. In fact, Jesus does something even more; He lays down His life for His enemies. In sin we find ourselves opposed to God; Jesus died to break down that opposition, to restore us to communion with Him.

Those we remember this weekend also died for their friends, and for many people whom they didn't know and will never know. We are the beneficiaries of their sacrifice, and we will never know their names or anything else about them. Even so, they have earned the right to be remembered, to be honored, to be celebrated, for their sacrifices. Whatever else you have going on, remember to stop and honor those who have died for you.

--Fr. Ferris

PORTUGUESE PROVERB

THANK YOU

Congratulations on hosting a successful Lenten collection, and thank you for joining us as co-missioners! Your help will provide free books to students, soap to agricultural workers, crafts for vacation Bible school, and altar linens/purificators at Holy Spirit Mission in North Carolina. Your work in Saranac, MI will now cause ripples of goodness in Tennessee, North Carolina, and even Georgia. Thank you for responding to God's call to service and charity. May you all continue to follow the Holy Spirit.

Peace + prayers, Rachel Thome

Sherry Free will be collecting more items thru the middle of June!
